Dear Mr. Dufayard.

We both wish you a very happy birthday with many returns! It must be unbelievable to be already 70 years. However as Mme Dufayard wrote: Que ça dure! That is what I really hope for you both. It is nice to hear that everybody goes on well. I must say we may not complain either. But Paul always says: It all hangs on a silk thread! We hope you have a nice day together and please give everybody my greetings.
